GOOD CONCLUSIONS TO AIM AT:

1. God has made the ultimate sacrifice of love and sees you as forgiven, cleansed and redeemed through the power of Jesus Christ.
2. Believe that God loves you as you are, and that He has forgiven your sins. (1 John 1:9)
3. Stop being harder on yourself than God is. We exist within bodies of sin and we will fail. The life we live in Christ today is much more significant than the failures of yesterday.
4. When those around you make you feel unimportant, remember the scriptures that remind you that God sees you are unique and special. And when you sit in the light of that, everything else will fade into greyness. You are loved by the God of the universe. There is nothing more awesome than that!

5. Friendship & Jesus

Friendship bracelets / bands / jewelery could be used as a craft for this.
Jesus said to his disciples that he no longer called them servants, but friends.

Relevant verses:

Look at what Jesus said to his friends in John 15:13 -17
Jesus laid down his life for us & is our friend always.

Questions for discussion:

1. What do you like doing best with friends?
2. What does having a friend mean to you?
3. What qualities do friends have?

Questions for discussion:

1. Do your friends ever do things that you don't want to? What are you prepared to do?
2. How important is our 'image' around our friends?
3. (For christians) Is it difficult to live out your faith around your peers? If yes – why?
4. Can we be different?

Scriptures which may be helpful:

3. AVOID situations where you will be tempted. (Pray against temptation: James 4:7, "Resist the devil and he will flee from you".)
4. SUPPORT each other, get a Christian peer to talk with, to help, and to help you.
5. Let the SPIRIT lead you - don't try in your own strength.

7. Prayer

STATEMENTS TO CONSIDER:

1. The quality and quantity of our prayers are a good indication of the quality and depth of our relationship with God.
2. When communication dies, so does the relationship.
3. Communication which is not two way, is not particularly effective.

Consider how the above relate to prayer.

Spend some time praising God and praying for each other in small groups. Relax and enjoy the communication.

8. PREPARING A TESTIMONY

There are two main approaches to preparing a testimony:

1: A time line approach - A spiritual Journey

2: Majoring on a theme:-

- E.G. The purpose of living.
- Release from Fear.
- Discovering peace.

NOTE: Share how God's past and present input on your life effects you TODAY!

Questions for discussion starters:

- 1: Has anything like this ever happened to you?
- 2: Does this make sense to you?
- 3: What do you think God sees in you right now?
- 4: Do you want to know God?

PAUL'S TESTIMONY (in Acts 22 and 26)

4 significant points Paul makes:

- 1: He has not always followed Christ.
- 2: God dealt with his rebellion.
- 3: Paul submitted to God.
- 4: His life is now centered on God's purposes.

9. Who is Jesus?

Questions for discussion:

Who do you think Jesus is?

What do you know about him?

What does the bible say about who he is?

Bible verses to look at:

11. What is the bible about?

Some people have never seen or read a bible – it may be helpful to start from scratch!

Check out the INDEX in a bible – 66 ‘books’ within one book!

It’s divided into OLD TESTAMENT(OT) and NEW TESTAMENT (NT)

OT – Before Jesus.

- The story of God and his people (ISRAEL).
- Creation, fall of humanity (sin), God’s promises (Abraham), law (10 commandments), Stories of God’s judgement, love, patience, forgiveness and promises.
- Writings about wisdom (like Proverbs), poetry and songs (like Psalms) and prophecy (‘foretelling’) about Jesus (like in Isaiah).

NT – Jesus and beyond.

- Gospels (Matthew, Mark, Luke and John)
- The birth of Jesus (Christmas), Jesus’ life (walking on water, feeding 5000, preaching, teaching, miracles, etc).
- Jesus’ death and resurrection (Easter).
- Sending of his Spirit to us (John 15-17).
- Acts (the continued story of God’s Spirit at work through his people).
- Letters written to God’s people all over the world (written by Jesus’ followers like Paul, Peter and James).
- Revelation- the story about the end of everything (hard to understand but still God’s word to us).

Practice finding a passage:

Formula: [NAME OF BOOK] [CHAPTER NUMBER] : [VERSE NUMBER/S]

Isaiah 53: 5 and 6.

John 3:16

1 Peter 2:24-25

MORE INFO:

- Check out indexes, concordances, maps etc., in both the front and back of your Bible. Find your way around. There may be different versions of the bible floating around – for younger ones the Good News Bible is probably the easiest. There are Youth Bibles and Study Bibles that are helpful for understanding what it says.
- Encourage campers to read MARK – it’s the easiest to read Gospel.
- Be careful how you use the bible – some parts of the OT may not readily apply to today.
- FOCUS ON JESUS – he’s the one on who our faith depends! (HEBREWS 12: 1-2)
